

LEARN THE RAW TRUTH ABOUT SYSTEMIC RACISM IN RICHMOND!

RAW: Racism At Work

A Monthly Discussion Series Presented by Coming to the Table-RVA's Good Fellowship Circle

RAW Truth Session #1

Racism and Systemic Racism: What are They & How Do They Relate?

January 27, 2021 / 7 - 8:30 pm / Free / CTTT-RVA Members and Friends Welcome

Register through link provided in the event email invitation & through

<https://comingtothetable-rva.org/events.cfm>

(RSVP prior to January 25, please)

Featuring Dr. Sabrina Dent, Senior Faith Advisor, Americans United for Separation of Church and State

Dr. Dent's prior experience:

- * Fellow, Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty
- * Director of recruitment and admissions, Religious Freedom Center of the Freedom Forum
- * Program Coordinator, Doctor of Ministry Program, Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology, Virginia Union University
- * Past President, Interfaith Community of Greater Richmond (ICGR) (ICGR is a group of 20 faith communities committed to developing respect, understanding, and cooperation among its members.)

What Is RAW?

CTTT-RVA's Racism At Work (RAW) program, and its RAW Truth Sessions, will give COMING TO THE TABLE members, friends, and family the opportunity to explore how the artificial social constructs of race and racism have been intentionally and systematically woven into the very fabric of American society in general, and Richmond in particular.

Upcoming RAW Truth Sessions

February 24: Richmond's "Unhealed History": Whites' Understanding of the Legacy of Slavery

Rev. Benjamin Campbell – Richmond Hill former pastoral director, activist, and author

March 24: Racism At Work in Economics and Community Wealth Building

Dr. Thad Williamson - University of Richmond Jepson School of Leadership
Founder, Richmond Office of Community Wealth Building

Future RAW Truth sessions will explore Racism At Work in Property Rights and Family Wealth Building; Education; Healthcare; Social Justice; Politics; Media and Entertainment; Employment; Sports; etc.

For more information contact Clarence McGill (c.mcgill@comcast.net), or Jerry Swerling (jerry.swerling@gmail.com)