

Bondage, Resistance, Freedom

A CTTT-RVA sponsored Pilgrimage -- Part I
Saturday June 10-Sunday June 11, 2017

Saturday, June 10, 2017:

7:15 am - Richmond participants: Breakfast and orientation at Aunt Sarah's Pancake House (W. Broad St. and Sauer St. Intersection)

8:00 am - Leave Aunt Sarah's for Hampton, VA

9:15-10:30-- Tour Hampton History Museum (Ticket $5)

11:00-1:00 - Buckroe Beach - Sankofa's 6th Annual International Day of Remembrance (Casual lunch from food trucks- or bring your own)

1:30-3:00 Hampton University Museum and Campus

3:15--5:15-- Tour Fort Monroe

5:30--Dinner & conversation: Louie's Crab Shack

Drive to Courtland, VA (aka Jerusalem)

Lodging: Palm Tree Inn

Sunday, June 11, 2017

8:00 Breakfast, Palm Tree Inn

8:30-- Leave for Suffolk Museum, Suffolk, VA -

9:00- 12:00 – Dismal Swamp Tour (Ticket $15)

12:30-2:00 lunch and conversation Suffolk, Va

2:30-4:30 pm - Nat Turner Trail including Nat Turner Museum, Courtland, VA (Ticket--$30)

Closing Circle before returning home

A suggestion for participants who are privileged by means of their color: Contribute a second registration (or amount of your choice) to our IRA account for this trip (Individual Reparations Action). We will use these funds to pay for meals, lodging and entrance fees for participants whose lives are impacted by color discrimination